TACKLING CALLUSES

"Callus peels are still one of the best-selling products for pedicures, and these make for a great treatment or retail add on," explains Sharon Sandhu, category manager for nails at Salon Services UK & Ireland. "But, remember to warn your customers that their feet will start shedding after a few days! With this in mind, why not offer your client a bundle service to help them care for their feet between treatments. Plan in a pre-treatment callus peel and book them in for a deluxe pedicure, with a cracked skin lotion included in the price."
